the UGLY SELLS BEST

believe me Jeffrey Morgan you didnt do much to help out promoting bands from Toronto. Why dont you fucking go to hell with your articles about our scene.

after finishing a shortened tour, the Diodes played to 2 sellout crowds at the EL Mocambo.

Diodes

the Skulls AKA NUMBSKULLS have spread across worldwide. who knows why they all didnt go to England to become famous but JOEY SKITHEAD went back to BC with his old lady, Simon went to London and I dont know where the fuck Dimwit got to. If anyone sees him tell him to call J.G. because they are looking for a drummer.

That's why I was amazed to see — on the coffee table, copy of the Sunday Sun, its pages open to an article on — would you believe — Punk Rock! "Punk rock!" growled Miss Russell, rolling her eyes heavenward. "What is punk rock? I try to keep up with popular music and I sort of made it — more or less — to the Beatles and Elvis Presley, but HONESTLY! The stuff nowadays!" "SOME of these groups, give them two keys and six chords and they've got a whole evening's program! And these Sex Pistols! Have you SEEN them? Killing themselves and selling out everywhere? What is that A-BOLITY?"

Elvis Costello

"north american appearances complete sellouts"

"Elvis aim is pure rock and roll"

"worldwide promotion and record sales"

"may become as famous as his namesake"

"if you havent heard him yet, turn on your radio"

We dont care about anything.

CHICAGO (UPI) — Convicted killer Richard Speck has finally admitted being involved in the murders of eight nurses almost 12 years ago while he was high on heroin and whisky.

Teenage HEAD

returned to the Colonial Tavern Feb. 16 only this time it was upstairs in the newly reopened club. Unfortunately it was poorly advertized and on short notice but the punk scene showed up for the event. Honoured guests were Steve Leckie, the Denteens, some Ugly and B Girls. It was a loud, hard hitting show and Frankie Venom was in fine form. The crowd were glad to see these guys back up on the stage since they played Davids at xmas but the atmosphere at the Colonial just couldnt get the energy happening. There wasnt any room to let loose and the usual frenzy from a band like the Head was sedated.

toronto media has not only been promoting punk rock
the have totally accepted the fact that they are going to have to listen to anyway cause thats was the kids are listening to these days. some local AM stations have decided that they will be playing this new music for a period of time. punk is here to stay

Fuck of Snoids

Somehow or another the El Mocambo snoids thought that the Romantics are a punk rock band. The rumor was heightened with the arrival of certain people from the scene in Toronto and a few beer glasses were thrown. After a great set from the ROMANTICS and after a couple of numbers from the Detective all the punks converged upstairs in the Romantics dressing room. There were no people left to see the Detective so being a snoid band! they thought it was a plot and their lead singer got insecure when Anya wouldnt take a light from him. Anyway the Romantics got fucked up the ass for their 3 night gig. They will be coming back to headline their own gig in the near future.
